

Warburg-HIH Invest leases out nearly 1,000 square metres in Erlangen

- Real estate firm rents the space for five years
- Leasable space in the office and commercial building totals just under 9,700 square metres

Hamburg, 25 February 2021 – Warburg-HIH Invest Real Estate (Warburg-HIH Invest) has newly leased out approximately 940 square metres in Erlangen to a real estate firm for a five-year term as of 1 February. The space is located in a high-end office and commercial building on Nögelsbachstraße. Of the nearly 9,700 square metres in the building, approximately 1,711 square metres of vacant office space remains available. The four-story property consists of four structural parts with an internal courtyard and features its own underground parking garage with 204 parking spaces for cars. The property, constructed in 1991, is in an individual fund managed by Warburg-HIH Invest.

Carina Orthen, Head of Letting for the Southern Region at HIH Real Estate, says: “The property is located at the southern entrance to the shopping district in Erlangen’s city centre and features an outstanding location. The public transit connections are excellent, and the A73 motorway is also quick to reach. Vacant space is still available for potential tenants.”

Brokerage firm his ImmoService acted as an intermediary on behalf of Warburg-HIH Invest.
