Press Release

Reinoud Plantenga to head Warburg-HIH Invest Benelux company

Hamburg, 8 January 2018 – Reinoud J. Plantenga (MRICS) will be joining Warburg-HIH Invest Real Estate (Warburg-HIH Invest) as of the beginning of the year. The 45 year-old real estate expert will be a Managing Director of the fully-owned subsidiary for investments in the Benelux countries. Plantenga has more than 17 years' experience in real estate, particularly in commercial transactions, asset management and consulting, and has held advisory and executive positions at Bilfinger (now Apleona), Colliers, Cushman & Wakefield and Triuva (formerly IVG). At investment company Triuva, Plantenga was Head of Investment Management Transactions with a total volume of EUR 1.8 billion and a portfolio of 43 properties representing assets under management of EUR 750 million. "With Reinoud Plantenga we are gaining an experienced real estate expert who is highly familiar with the Benelux property markets, and offers the expertise necessary for expanding this key investment region," commented Andreas Schultz, Managing Director Transaction Management International at Warburg-HIH Invest. The establishment of Warburg-HIH Invest Real Estate Benelux B.V. and the opening of an office in Amsterdam scheduled for mid-January 2018 underscore the continuation of Warburg-HIH Invest's pan-European investment strategy.
