Carsten Demmler to become new Head of Capital Management at Warburg-HIH Invest

Hamburg, 2 January 2019 – Carsten Demmler (43) is transferring to Warburg-HIH Invest to serve as Head of Capital Management. In this position, he will primarily manage the marketing of strategy funds, individual solutions and every other kind of service related to institutional real estate investments. A native of Berlin, Demmler previously worked for the Nord/LB state bank, since July 2013 responsible for the marketing of capital market and capital-market-related products to institutional clients as Head of Sales. Demmler looks back on more than 20 years of professional experience in the bank business, and has been active in the marketing of capital-market-related products for the past 17 years. His career started with the Landesbank Berlin state bank. His next career stations included Bankgesellschaft Berlin, HSH Nordbank and Erste Group Bank. “In Carsten Demmler, we found a personality who, in addition to having decades of capital market experience, has the competencies in human resource management and team development that are essential to fill the new position,” said Felix Gold, Managing Director at Warburg-HIH Invest. “His support will help us do an even better job of living up to our aspiration to offer a personal approach to our institutional clients.”
